

We can't wait to see you for in-person services. As we prepare for your child's arrival in KidSummit, here's what you can expect so you can enjoy a safe and engaging experience:

Before you arrive:

- Tickets will be required. Whether your child attends one of our family ministries or joins you in the auditorium, you must reserve a ticket for every child and adult in your party.
- Please stay home and watch online if you or your child does not feel well.

Check-in/check-out:

- Temperature checks will be required for all KidSummit children and volunteers upon arrival.
- Child check-in is now centrally located in the lobby.
- We ask that only one parent per child enters KidSummit for drop-off and pickup.
- During pickup, if you have children in both Peak and KidSummit, we recommend picking up your KidSummit children first. You will exit the building from The Peak.

In KidSummit:

- Volunteers will wear masks.
- Children are asked to wear masks.
- Each child will receive hand sanitizer before entering the KidSummit environment.
- Small group rooms will not be used at this time. All activities will instead take place in the large group area.
- Each child will receive their own supplies for activities; items will not be shared among children.
- Seat markers placed throughout the environment will help children maintain physical distance.
- The KidSummit environment will be thoroughly cleaned and disinfected before and after every service.

If you are not ready for your child to return to KidSummit at this time, we encourage you to watch our services online. Visit our website or app for weekly services and resources for both you and your kids.
